-  BUSINESS NAME: Wild West Gallery
-  OWNERS: Perry Bartoshyk
-  NUMBER OF YEARS IN BUSINESS: 30+

Wild West Gallery offers many unique one-of-a-kind products, crafts, and gift items produced by the best beaders and crafters from the central Canadian plains. The gallery also offers vintage and new western saddles and tack! Reinsman, Billy Cook, Western Rawhide, and Teskey are among the quality brands of saddles and tack available. Pendleton blankets, bags and purses, vintage beadwork, western style handbags, western home decor, silver jewelry and buckles, scented candles and soaps, original art work and carving, horse hair jewelry, quill work jewelry and baskets, mukluks, beaded gloves and jackets are all a part of what the gallery is about!

The Wild West Gallery is a unique business that offers Central Alberta artists an outlet to share their art and the many different traditions of the First Nations Peoples. Perry conducts business in Wetaskiwin because he loves the area, and has developed a strong friendship with many local Indigenous artists.
